I found these in the 1905 Lincoln Evening News Index:

WHEATON, A. M. (Mrs.) Lincoln death Dec.13, 1905 pg.7
column 4
WHEATON, James (Mrs.) Lincoln death Dec.9, 1905 pg.6
column 2
WHEATON,Jas. Lincoln obituary Dec.13, 1905 pg.7 column 4

Nothing in the Probate Records Index.

Relieved 18 November, 1776 from Poor's Brigade

Disbanded 19 January, 1777 at Fort Ticonderoga, New York.

ENGAGEMENTS

Defense of Canada

Lake Champlain

After the retreat from Canada in April and May 1776, General Benedict Arnold organized the construction of the first American Navy on Lake Champlain to thwart a British invasion from Canada. The fleet was built at Whithall and outfitted at Ticonderoga. The British defeated the American Navy at the Battle of Valcour Island (Modern Button Bay) in October 1776.

George Dear had always followed the sea. When the Army had retreated to Ticonderoga, an order was given to enlist all men who had been Sailors, for service on the boats upon Lake Champlain. He enlisted. In the engagements on the lake it was the custom when the flash of the enemy's guns was seen to cry, "A Shot," then the men would fall down. George Dear being deaf, did not hear, and he was cut almost in two by a cannon ball.

Children of GEORGE DEAR and ABIGAIL WHEATON are:

i. GEORGE^2 DEAR, JR, b. March 09, 1756, Branford, New Haven Co., Connecticut; m. SARAH BISHOP, December 02, 1778, Litchfield, Connecticut.

CHAPTER XXIV.

REED TOWNSHIP.

THIS division of the county was surveyed into one-fourth sections by Price J. Kellogg in 1820, and recorded by him as Town 2 north, Range 17 east, and 35x17 chains of the gore separating the township from the Western Reserve. This gore resulted from the fact that when Surveyor Sylvanus Bourne began his survey of ceded lands in Ohio west of the Western Reserve, he adopted the system of six square miles for his townships and ranges; so that when he staked the east line of Range 17 on the line of latitude north 41°, he found himself exactly fifty-two chains and seven links distant from the west line of the reserve. This he called " the Gore," being the given distance on latitude north 41 and zero, eighteen miles north of that, where the extreme northeastern corner line of Thompson Township strikes the west line of the Western Reserve or the " Connecticut Reserve," or the "Fire Lands," as the tract was variously termed.

The township was known generally under its survey number; but old settlers in Seneca and Huron knew it as "Seneca Town," as there the chief, Seneca John, had a cabin and resided at intervals. The historian who wrote for Stewart's publication in 1874, says:

"During the early period of the settlement of the township the Indians were very numerous, and, as a general thing, lived amicably with the few whites who were there at an early day. Somewhere about the year when the first settlement was made an accident of a fatal character happened to an Indian maiden, a daughter of tire renowned chief and warrior Seneca John. The Indians made frequent visits to the neighborhood of the present village of Reedtown each winter, for the purposes of hunting and trapping. On one of these occasions a party was encamped here, and was preparing an evening meal. A large kettle full of boiling water was hanging, suspended by a pole, over the fire, and the unfortunate girl was lying in front of it, when the pole burned through, letting the kettle fall, spilling its heated contents upon the body of the girl. Some of those present immediately enveloped her in a blanket and conducted her to a house near by, where she was attended by Dr. Williams, who did everything in his power to alleviate her terrible sufferings. On removing the blanket, the flesh literally clung to it, leaving her almost a living skeleton. Soon, however, death put an end to her sufferings. After her death William Williams made a hand sled, and a number of the Indian boys, followed by a mournful cortege, conveyed the remains to the burying ground of the Wyandot nation, located a little above Tiffin. Seneca John, who was a Wyandot, was subsequently assassinated, on an accusation of witchcraft." (Vide Indian History.)

When Read and Raymond made the first settlements in 1823, the name "Read Town" came into use; and on the organization of the township in 1826, the name was confirmed in an Americanized form- "Reed Township." Four years after organization and seven years after the first pioneers arrived, the population was 264; in 1840 it was 1,214; in 1850, 1,494; in 1860, 1,631, decreased in 1870 to 1,334, increased in 1880 to 1,527, at which figures the population may be said to rest. The exodus to Kansas and the movement toward the cities tend to keep the number of inhabitants at about 1,500. The surface of the township presents a large area of rolling land, with occasional broken patches. The slope is from the south trending east and west.

Rock Creek, which flows into the Sandusky River at Tiffin, has its head waters in Sections 16, 29, 30 and 33 in the township, the fork on 33 rising south of the railroad, and receiving its main supply from two small lakes in Sections 33 and 28 on the Lapham farm. On the southwest quarter of Section 18, the stream enters Beeghley Lake and flows through that pond to the west line of the township. Some of the bed-streams of the Huron River find a supply in the marsh near Attica Station and on Sections 1, 15 and 26, flowing east and northeast from the base of the ridge or highland in the south and center of the township. Ponds are common throughout the western sections, and these ponds are sometimes connected by native streams.

The only line of railway passing through Reed Township is the Baltimore & Ohio, which enters at the southeast corner of Section 36, takes a west by north direction through the township, passing en route through Attica Station Village, and leaves at the southwest quarter of Section 30.

Organic and Official. A reference to the chapter on the organization of the counties and transactions of the commissioner's board will convey very fully the early attachments of this township, prior to its organization within the limits of the original survey and fractional part of the "Gore." On December 5, 1826 the township was set off, and its organization followed on January 1, 1827. All the first settlers, Seth Read, George Raymond, Samuel, John and Edward Cassety, Tunis Conkrite, Isaac and Tom Bennett, Samuel Scothorn, and, it is thought, John Wise, were the first township officers. Thomas Bennett and Samuel Scothorn, justices, and Nathan Chapman, clerk. The records .from 1827 to 1833 are not to be found. The town books, however, from 1834 to 1885 are in existence, and from them the following list of township officials is made up, the last named in each case being the clerk, the others the trustees:

1834.-John Brown, Matthew Clark, Jonathan F. Rogers; John B. Case.

1835.-Jacob Cole, John B. Case, Samuel Scothorn; John B. Case.

Cross have been born seven children: Mary E. (wife of A. Woolpert), Henry C. (married to Mary R. Geary), Hamilton J. (married to Susan Kinser), Newton (married to Ida Geary), Lewis C., Benjamin F. and Eliza J. (The three last named are deceased.) Our subject owns a farm of 102 acres in this county, and eighty acres in Wyandot County, Ohio.

WILLIAM R. DE TRAY, farmer, P. O. Tiffin, was born June 16, 1811, in the village of Johnson, R. I., a son of Anthony and Amy (Mathewson) De Tray, the latter a native of Rhode Island. Anthony Do Tray, born in Connecticut, emigrated to New York State in 1821, where he remained until 1822, when he came to Ohio and settled in Crawford County, near Melmore, and there spent the remainder of his days. His family consisted of two sons and two daughters: Amy, widow of Philip Perdew; Jackson, who died in Michigan: Nancy, formerly the wife of R. Weeks, now Mrs. Bartlett, and William R. Our subject was married, December 28, 1836, to Mary S., daughter of Robert Weeks, and by this union were born six children: Mary E., now Mrs. Ebersole (the only one surviving, has one child named Minnie), and Annie, Anthony W., Charles, Alice and Willie, all deceased. Anthony W. had two children: William W. and Josephine. Mr. De Tray came to this county and settled in Eden Township, where he still resides, having a farm of 160 acres of land, with fine improvements, located on the Melmore Road. He is a thorough-going and successful farmer, and a highly respected citizen. The family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Tiffin and Rock Creek.

JOHN L. DOWNS, farmer, P. O. Melmore, was born August 22, 1812, in Ross County. Ohio; son of John and Caroline (Holden) Downs, the former a native of Virginia, the latter of Kentucky. John Downs, Sr., came to Seneca County in 1821, and with his brother entered 480 acres of land, which he afterward took himself. In 1823 he came again, and lot the job of clearing ten acres and putting up a cabin. The following year he brought his family and began pioneer life. There were fourteen children in his family, four of whom are living: Catharine (Mrs. P. Minich), Eliza M. (Mrs. J. Corbett), Lemuel, a neighboring farmer, and John L. Our subject was married, in 1845, to Margaret A. Wheaton, born in Brown County, Ohio, daughter of Jehosaphat Wheaton, and who bore him ten children: James (deceased), Frances A., Orville, Caroline (deceased wife of C. H. Funk, had one child-Nettie M.), Sarah J., Lehre, Katie, Dora, Ida M. and Mertie (latter died in infancy). Mr. Downs occupies the land which his father entered, now a well-improved farm of 200 acres. Having been a successful farmer, he is now enjoying the fruits of his labor. His first vote was cast for Martin Van Buren for President.

WILLIAM FERGUSON, farmer, P. O. Rockaway, a native of Pennsylvania, was born May 6, 1817; son of Thomas and Jane (Marshall) Ferguson, also natives of Pennsylvania, and who were the parents of twelve children (all of whom grew to maturity and had families), nine surviving. Our subject, the second born, is the only one of the family now living in Ohio, the others reside in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Missouri. William Ferguson received his education in his native State. There he was married, in 1843, to Martha C. Tittle, by which union there were six children (two now living): an infant (deceased, not named); Marshall Beatty, educated at Heidelberg College and

Continental,

When the Luke M. Ducatt family came from Weston, Ohio, to this place of swamp and woods on March 9, 1886, there were only five little log shanties here, and upon their arrival, there were 13 persons here, and seven of them were of the Ducatt family. Herman Ducatt a resident here for many years, and his sister Mrs. Ellen Dildine of Leipsic, (both are now deceased) recall that it took them from 7 o'clock in the morning until 5 P.M. to travel here from McClure, Ohio, (probably about 35 mile), on the old railroad which was 30 inches wide and the rails and ties just laid on the ground. Their father later built the first frame house in Continental. There was one road at the time at Continental. It was known as the Rice road which extended one mile west and about 2 miles east or as far as Hector.

In 1886 George Skinner laid out and platted the original town of Marice City for Gen. A. V. Rice who owned much of the land here, and Mr. Rice's daughter Mary E. Rice was honored by naming the town after her.

At the time the Ducatts moved here, the Buckeye Stave Co. had a stave mill at Hector, which was later erected in Marice City. James Belford surveyor, was employed to lay out and plat their first addition to the town. That company erected a stave factory on their addition.

The first store in Marice City was opened by James Sullivan. This was soon followed after by a general store on the southwest corner of Main and Rice Road, about 1886 or '87. The town was incorporated March 22, 1888. It was only called Marice City for several year and the name changed to Continental which still remains. Some of the leading business men of Continental in the early days, were Dr. B. D. Sparling (res. is where Frank Rockhold now lives), who practiced medicine and handled realestate; Clarence E. Chapin engaged in the grain business in Continental; George H. Seals who opened and conducted the Maple House (hotel) formerly back of the present bank; and Alfred Morris who opened up a saw mill, lumber yard and planing mill in 1891. In 1893 the Konst brothers (Frank and Charles) formed a partnership and began the manufacture of tile and brick. In 1888, H. A. Neff came to Continental and followed the lumber business, and in 1891 engaged in the drug business.

The Stave mill, hoop mill and planing mill, and the saw mill along with the manufacture of tile and brick, made the town grow very fast. The first sidewalks were of elm bark built in the early 1890's.

Mr. Ducatt recalls that the first Sunday School was held in the new stave factory immediately after it was built. The long building at the left of the picture was known as the old opera house owned by John Conrad (now deceased). It was used for stage shows and dances. It has since burned down, and several blocks of residences now replace that side of South Main St. Note the board walks, the board fences, buggies parked in front of the black smith shop, the smoke stacks of the Stave Mill, and dirt roads. The picture was taken at the south end of Marice City, later named Continental, and looking North. The date is wrong on the picture according to Mr. Ducatt and his sister, as they said there was nothing here when they came here, except the five little log shanties. The date is possibly 1893 instead of 1883, due to other information secured, Marice City was platted in 1886. A postal record from Washington states the town's name was changed to Marice City Feb. 29, 1888, and back to Continental on Feb. 1890.

Other information includes the following:

In 1890 the first brick business room (lot 78--Wm. Schafer building) in Continental, was constructed by John H. Andrews. It was a two story structure 19 by 60 ft.

In 1893, L. C. Rosenberger constructed on the Northwest corner of Main and Maple Sts. (second brick building) formerly the old Minch store.

A post-office was established at Continental (according to Post Office records at Washington D. C.) May 2, 1881. Discontinued Oct. 31, 1881. Re-established Dec. 12, 1881. Discontinued Jan. 8, 1884. Re-established June 14, 1886.

The first brick school building, built in Continental, was in 1890 by Jacob Spiker. It was built on the corner of Fifth and Ash Sts. All the money that could be raised from levy the first year was $700 to pay teachers salaries and expenses.

A system of waterworks was constructed in 1895 at a cost of about $5000 and an electric light plant has since been erected by a company.

A system of sewerage was constructed which was about 4 miles in length including the outlet at a depth of from 4 to 13 ft. and constructed with pipe ranging from 10 to 24 inches in diameter, at a cost of nearly $10,000. Two other drains have since been constructed. One on the south side, principally for a cut off, and one as a drain for the Northwest part of town.

RELATING TO THE WHEATON FAMILY

MARRIAGE RECORDS

✓ 23 DEC 1860 (V-2-10) SARAH S. WHEATON MARRIED ELI T.B. SMITH
(This is the dtr. of Wm. & Sarah Hall Wheaton, so Wheaton Family must have been in Paulding Co. by Dec. 1860 or before).

26 MAR. 1865 (V2-52) SAMANTHA WHEATON MARRIED OBED HARTMAN
(This is the widow of Wm. Wheaton Jr.(who died during the Civil War)

✓ 6 JAN. 1870 (V2-129)ANSON WHEATON MARRIED SARAH E. WALKER
(this is the son of Wm. & Sarah Hall Wheaton, & this is his first wife)

27 MAY 1880 (V3-290) GEO. W. WHEATON MARRIED FANNY PINE
(In 1880 Paulding Co., OH. census, Geo. W., son of Jonathan Lacey Wheaton, was listed as age 24 with Fannie, age 18, dtr. in law of Jonathan) (Did this marriage end in divorce?) Geo. W. is buried in Neb. with wife Callie)
(Also note 1889 marriage of Fannie Wheaton)

✓21 NOV 1882(V3-411) ELMIRA WHEATON MARRIED JACOB H. STALEY
(Is this Anson's sister Almira?) In 1880, she was single & working in the Crane Twp. household of the James Lattimore Family. In 1882, she would be 36 yrs. old. Her obit. calls her Elmira Reeder(whom she marr. 1892) & her death cert. says Almira Swinehart. There are no other Elmiras that I know about).

✓ 22 Oct. 1885(V3-574) ANNA WHEATON MARRIED ALVA MORRIS
(My Mom didn't know who the Anna Morris of Universal Park, Iowa was , whose name & address were listed in Wheaton Reunion book from 1926..maybe I should write to Esme Gusler to see if she knows)

3 MAR. 1889 (V4-236) FANNIE WHEATON MARRIED ISAAC T. BETTS
(Is this the Fannie that was married to Geo. W. Wheaton?)

✓ 15 MAR. 1894(V5-121)WM. J. WHEATON MARRIED ALICE R. HOLBROOK
(Have solved the mystery of Alice: Found among Mom's geneal. items: J.H. Shirley taught school, m. Miss Mary E. Ward of Franklin Co., also a teacher, dau. of Lewis Ward. Mrs. Shirley died in 1867 age 34, leaving 3 chn: Milton, Homer & Stephen. 2nd. m. m. Miss Malinda Nash. Their chn: Alice, wife of L. S. Holbrook, & Warren. In Weston Cem. there is a tombstone: WHEATON Alice R. Shirley wife of W. J. Wheaton 1870-1896 Mary, dau. 1895-1896. Her death cert. says died 12th Apr. 1896 Weston Twp., Wood Co., OH., married, place of birth: Paulding Co., OH. cause of death: consumption..Have d. cert. for Lucy May Wheaton,who d. 24 Nov. 1896, age 1 yr, 5 mo. 12 days, Weston Twp., consumption.
Is this Wm. the son of Sylvester,who was born in 1852, and in 1870, was living in Wood Co. with his parents? Believe he was married to Sara..., who died 13 Nov. 1892, Milton Twp., Wood Co., OH.

NEW YORK TIMES MARCH 26, 1947

BURT DENISON WHEDON

Retired New York Lawyer, 69, Nebraska Alumnus, Dies

Special to The New York Times

STAMFORD, Conn., March 26- Burt Denison Whedon of Newtown, Conn., retired New York lawyer who formerly lived in Jamaica, L.I., died yesterday in the Stamford Hospital after an illness of six weeks. Born in Lincoln, Neb., sixty-nine years ago, he was the son of Charles O. Whedon, lawyer, and a descendant of Capt. George Denison, who migrated from England to Massachusetts in 1631.

A veteran of the war with Spain, and the Philippine Insurrection, Mr. Whedon received his A. B. from the University of Nebraka in 1900, and his LL.B. from Harvard in 1903. For some years he was a member of the New York law firm of Wing & Russell.

He leaves his widow, who was Marion Steele of Oberlin, Ohio, at their marriage in 1904; two sons, John O., and Daniel C. Whedon, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret W. Walsh.

THE NATIONAL CYCLOPEDIA OF AMERICAN BIOGRAPHY PAGE 365

WHEDON, BURT DENISON, lawyer, was born in Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 27, 1878, son of Charles Ogden and Ellen Frances (Denison) Whedon, grandson of Nathaniel and Esther Ann (Cleveland) Whedon and a descendant of Thomas and Ann (Harvey) Whedon who came to this country from England in 1653 and settled in New Haven, Conn., later moving to Branford, Conn. His father was a prominent trial lawyer and member of the Nebraska state legislature. The son received his preparatory education in the public schools of Lincoln and was graduated A. B. at the University of Nebraska in 1900 and L.L.B. at Harvard University in 1903. Meanwhile he had served in the Spanish-American War, fought at Manila, and commanded a detachment of troops said to have fired the first shot in the Philippine Insurrection. He served with the 1st Nebraka Volunteer Infantry under Francis V. Greene(q.v.), U.S.A. was promoted to 2nd lieutenant in the field after having been wounded, and later became 1st lieutenant and regimental adjutant. Following his graduation at law school, he was admitted to the bar, and moved to New York City, where for three years he was employed in a number of legal offices and acted as secretary to John P. Clarke, an associate judge of appellate division of the New York Supreme Court. In 1906, he became asociated with the firm of Wing & Russell and after 1911 was a partner in that firm and its successors: Wing, Lakin, Russell, & Whedon; Wing, Lakin & Whedon; and Whedon & Bennett. He was practicing as senior member of the last named partnership at the time of his death. A specialist in corporation law, Whedon actively engaged in the trial of many actions in behalf of large corporations and wrote many briefs and argued appeals before both state and federal courts. In 1915, he was counsel to a legislative committee investigating the Public Service Commission of New York. Whedon belonged to the American and New York State bar asociations, New York County Lawyers Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York Law Institute, the Harvard Club of

New York City, and the Litchfield, (Conn.) Country Club. In politics, he was a Republican. He enjoyed playing golf, gardening, shooting and riding and was especially interested in the study of history and genealogy. Whedon was married in Oberlin, Ohio, Dec. 20, 1904, to Marion Jameson (Steele) Durand, daughter of John Whedon Steele of that place, a judge, and widow of Samuel Benjamin Durand, and had four children: John Ogden; Roger Denison; Margaret Tenney, who married Richard John Walsh, Jr.; and Daniel Clark. He died in Stamford, Conn., Mar. 25, 1947.

vice-president of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., and a director of the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital. A founder of the Chestertown Business Men's Association, he later served as its president and was a founder and patron of the Association of Wesley Junior College, Dover, Del. A Republican in politics, he was chosen the first mayor of Chestertown under its new charter of 1920 and served for twelve years. At various times he was also a member of the city water board and the city council. A communicant of Christ Methodist Church in Chestertown, he was a member of its official board and also belonged to the General Conference Board of Publication and was a delegate to the jurisdictional conference of the Methodist church and district steward to the Delmarva Peninsula Conference. He belonged to the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of Maryland and to the Men's Club of his church. Satterfield was married in Kent County, Md., Dec. 26, 1901, to Elizabeth Rebecca, daughter of William Thomas Miller of that place, a farmer. He died without issue in Chestertown, Md., Apr. 18, 1944.

WHEDON, Burt Denison, lawyer, was born in Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 27, 1878, son of Charles Ogden and Ellen Frances (Denison) Whedon, grandson of Nathaniel and Esther Ann (Cleveland) Whedon, and a descendant of Thomas and Ann (Harvey) Whedon who came to this country from England in 1653 and settled in New Haven, Conn., later moving to Branford, Conn. He died in Stamford, Conn., Mar. 25, 1947.

DOTY, Preston Beverly, banker, was born in Burlingame, Kan., Apr. 9, 1877, son of George Wallace and Ella (Beverly) Doty. His father was a lawyer and judge. Preston B. Doty was educated in Kansas public schools. He began his banking career as a messenger boy for the First National Bank of Burlingame, Kan., in 1896 and was a stenographer for the Exchange National Bank, Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1898 to 1902. He then worked for a year as a bookkeeper for the Southern Securities Co., Kansas City, Mo., and in 1903 moved to Beaumont, Tex., where he was employed as second assistant cashier in the Gulf National Bank. He became first assistant cashier in 1904 and later in the same year was promoted to cashier. In 1908 he was elected a director of the bank, being made vice-president and cashier in 1910. Five years later he was elected its president and when it and the First National Bank were consolidated in 1919 as the First National Bank of Beaumont he continued as president. He held that office thereafter as well as being chairman of the board of directors at the time of his death. At the merger of the two banking institutions in 1919 the combined deposits amounted to $5,570,525, of which $3,038,951 was contributed by the Gulf National Bank. During Doty's presidency the facilities of the bank were greatly expanded, the amount of deposits having been increased by 1946 to $40,933,154. Besides his interest in the bank, Doty was president of the Wall Street Property Co., vice-president of the Jefferson Securities Co., and treasurer and a director of the Beaumont Hotel Operating Co., all of Beaumont. In addition he was a director of the Houston branch of WHEDON, Daniel Denison, author and educator, was born at Onondaga, N. Y., March 20, 1808. He was graduated at Hamilton College in 1828, and subsequently applied himself to the study of law, but, abandoning that profession, devoted himself for a lengthy period to teaching. He taught at Cazenovia Seminary, New York, 1830–31, was a tutor at Hamilton College during the following year, and was subsequently professor of ancient languages at Wesleyan University, Connecticut. In 1843 he was ordained a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, and filled pastorates at Pittsfield, Mass., and Jamaica, L. I. Resuming the teaching profession, he was, from 1845 to 1852, professor of logic, rhetoric and history in Michigan University. In 1856 he was appointed editor of the "Methodist Quarterly Review" and of the publications of the Methodist Book Concern, in which capacity he served for twenty-eight years. Besides his editorial work, Mr. Whedon was a religious writer of no little eminence. He published numerous articles in different reviews and also a number of volumes, amongst them "Public Addresses" (1856); "Commentary on Matthew and Mark" (1860); the "Freedom of the Will," reviewing Jonathan Edwards and others (1864); "Commentary on the New Testament," 5 vols. (1860–75); "Commentary on the Old Testament," 7 vols. In 1889 there appeared a posthumous volume, containing "Essays, Reviews and Discourses." Mr. Whedon's health failed in 1884, and he was obliged to relinquish his labors, and to retire to Atlantic Highlands, N. J. His erudite additions to religious literature and his valuable services to the cause of Methodism earned for him the degree of D.D. from Emory and Henry College, Virginia, and in 1856 that of LL.D. was conferred by Wesleyan University. He died at Atlantic Highlands, June 8, 1885.

WHEDON, DANIEL DENISON (Mar. 20, 1808–June 8, 1885), Methodist Episcopal clergyman, editor, and teacher, was born in Onondaga, N. Y., the son of Daniel and Clarissa (Root) Whedon, and a descendant of Thomas Whedon who came to New Haven, Conn., from England in 1657 and later moved to Branford. The younger Daniel was a dreamy, absent-minded boy, more interested in books than in anything else. Hoping that he would become a lawyer, his father had him prepared for college by Oliver C. Grosvenor of Rome, N. Y., and at the age of eighteen he entered the junior class of Hamilton College, where he was graduated in 1828. He then studied law with Judge Chapin of Rochester and with Alanson Bennett of Rome.

In the latter place he was converted under the preaching of Charles G. Finney [q.v.], and joined the Methodist Church. In 1830 he was appointed teacher of Greek and mental philosophy in the Oneida Conference Seminary at Cazenovia, N. Y. The following year he returned to Hamilton College as a tutor and in 1833 became professor of ancient languages and literature at Wesleyan College, Middletown, Conn., in which capacity he served for ten years. In 1834 he was admitted on trial to the New York Conference and in due course was ordained deacon and elder. While at Wesleyan, his taste for controversy, manifested throughout his whole career, began to find expression. In articles published in Zion's Herald in 1835, in answer to those of Orange Scott [q.v.], Whedon opposed the radical abolitionist movement in the Methodist Church, and in reply to "An Appeal to the Members of the New England and New Hampshire Conferences" issued by the abolitionists, he wrote "A Counter Appeal . . ." (Zion's Herald, Apr. 8, 1835), signed by Wilbur Fisk [q.v.] and other conservatives. On July 15, 1840, he married Eliza Ann Searles of White Plains, N. Y.

Becoming weary of teaching, he relinquished his professorship in 1843 and became pastor of the Methodist Church in Pittsfield, Mass., and in 1845 of the church in Rensselaerville, N. Y. He was not well fitted for the pastorate, however, for he was not a great preacher nor a man of the people; he lacked voice, training, and emotional quality (Christian Advocate, June 18, 1885, p. 392). Accordingly, when, in 1845, he received a call to the chair of logic, rhetoric, and philosophy of history at the University of Michigan, he returned to teaching. He took a prominent part in the affairs of the institution; in the classroom, according to a former pupil, "his commanding presence, imperative logic and sesquipedalia verba, always used with mathematical precision, hammered truth into us and clinched it." He was "lank and angular in form and feature with a considerable sprinkling of vinegar at times in his ways of expressing himself" (Shaw, post, pp. 95–96). Though willing to apologize for the presence of slavery, he strenuously opposed the extension of it, and because of his utterances and internal dissensions in the college, he was virtually dismissed in December 1851 (University of Michigan: Regents' Proceedings . . . 1837–1864, 1915, p. 502).

The following year he opened a school in Ravenswood, Long Island, but increasing deafness soon caused him to abandon the enterprise. After serving churches in New York City and Jamaica, N. Y., in 1856 he was elected editor of the Methodist Quarterly Review, which position he held for the next twenty-eight years. In 1852 he had published Public Addresses Collegiate and Popular. A vigorous defender of Wesleyan Arminianism, he completed in 1864 a work entitled The Freedom of the Will as a Basis of Human Responsibility and a Divine Government Elucidated and Maintained in Its Issue with the Necessitarian Theories of Hobbes, Edwards, the Princeton Essayists, and Other Leading Advocates. While this work had extensive recognition in scholastic circles, Whedon became most widely known through the popular commentaries on the Bible which bear his name. The five volumes on the New Testament appeared between 1860 and 1880. The greater part of them he wrote himself, but his nephew, D. A. Whedon, collaborated in the later ones. Four volumes of

Retired New York Lawyer, 69,
Nebraska Alumnus, Dies

Special to The New York Times
STAMFORD, Conn., March 26- Burt Denison Whedon of Newtown, Conn., retired New York lawyer who formerly lived in Jamaica, L.I., died yesterday in the Stamford Hospital after an illness of six weeks. Born in Lincoln, Neb., sixty-nine years ago, he was the son of Charles O. Whedon, lawyer, and a descendant of Capt. George Denison, who migrated from England to Massachusetts in 1631.

A veteran of the war with Spain, and the Philippine Insurrection, Mr. Whedon received his A. B. from the University of Nebraka in 1900, and his LL.B. from Harvard in 1903. For some years he was a member of the New York law firm of Wing & Russell.

He leaves his widow, who was Marion Steele of Oberlin, Ohio, at their marriage in 1904; two sons, John O., and Daniel C. Whedon, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret W. Walsh.

WHEDON, BURT DENISON, lawyer, was born in Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 27, 1878, son of Charles Ogden and Ellen Frances (Denison) Whedon, grandson of Nathaniel and Esther Ann (Cleveland) Whedon and a descendant of Thomas and Ann (Harvey) Whedon who came to this country from England in 1653 and settled in New Haven, Conn., later moving to Branford, Conn. His father was a prominent trial lawyer and member of the Nebraska state legislature. The son received his preparatory education in the public schools of Lincoln and was graduated A. B. at the University of Nebraska in 1900 and L.L.B. at Harvard University in 1903. Meanwhile he had served in the Spanish-American War, fought at Manila, and commanded a detachment of troops said to have fired the first shot in the Philippine Insurrection. He served with the 1st Nebraka Volunteer Infantry under Francis V. Greene(q.v.), U.S.A. was promoted to 2nd lieutenant in the field after having been wounded, and later became 1st lieutenant and regimental adjutant. Following his graduation at law school, he was admitted to the bar, and moved to New York City, where for three years he was employed in a number of legal offices and acted as secretary to John P. Clarke, an associate judge of appellate division of the New York Supreme Court. In 1906, he became asociated with the firm of Wing & Russell and after 1911 was a partner in that firm and its successors: Wing, Lakin, Russell, & Whedon; Wing, Lakin & Whedon; and Whedon & Bennett. He was practicing as senior member of the last named partnership at the time of his death. A specialist in corporation law, Whedon actively engaged in the trial of many actions in behalf of large corporations and wrote many briefs and argued appeals before both state and federal courts. In 1915, he was counsel to a legislative committee investigating the Public Service Commission of New York. Whedon belonged to the American and New York State bar asociations, New York County Lawyers Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York Law Institute, the Harvard Club of

Dear Lucy,

I recently ran across some probate documents in Paulding Co, OH, that involved your ancestor AMANDA (SMITH) BLAIR WHEATON (1847-1917). These documents concern the estate of Amanda's first husband, JOSEPH BLAIR, who died intestate in Paulding Co on 13 May, 1881. Amanda's father JAMES SMITH served as estate administrator. Not knowing if you have seen these documents, I have enclosed copies for your files.

As for JOSEPH BLAIR's five surviving children identified in these documents, only the two youngest, i.e. Willis (b 1871) and James (b 1877), were from his marriage to AMANDA, who he married in 1867. I therefore assume the three older children, i.e Thomas (b 1853), Alice (b 1860), and Minda (b 1862), were from a prior marriage or marriages.

I continue to suspect that JOSEPH BLAIR (d 1881) of Paulding Co was the oldest son of PETER BLAIR JR (1808-70) of Defiance Co, who was the oldest son of my ancestor PETER JOSEPH BLAIR (1789-1874) of Paulding Co.

Since I last wrote to you on 11 July, I discovered on Pg 264 of the 1883 publication HISTORY OF DEFIANCE COUNTY, OHIO that my ancestor PETER JOSEPH BLAIR, the father of PETER BLAIR JR (1808-70) of Defiance Co, had migrated to NW Ohio from Michigan in 1817, and had settled on the Maumee River, where he resided until his death in 1874 at the age of 85. The author failed to state, however, that PETER JOSEPH BLAIR had actually settled in nearby Paulding Co.

Another son of PETER JOSEPH BLAIR (1789-1874) was OLIVER BLAIR (1825-1904), who died intestate in Hillsdale Co, MI. I recently obtained a copy of OLIVER's death certificate, and it identified his mother as BEAUJOLISE (DAWHDAY) BLAIR. Although I am reasonably certain that BEAUJOLISE BLAIR also died in Paulding Co, OH, I have been unable to establish her date of death.

Lucy, if you have uncovered any further information on JOSEPH BLAIR (d 1881) of Paulding Co, OH, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Chuck

Defiance, OH 43512

Dear Lucy,

As promised during our telephone conversation on 10 June, I have enclosed Family Group Sheets on my BLAIR and HUGHES ancestors who were among the early pioneers that settled along the Maumee River in northwestern Ohio. My 3g-grandparents SAMUEL & BETSEY (WHEDON) HUGHES, who migrated from Jennings Co, IN, in 1823, settled in Section 29 of Delaware Township in southern Williams Co. Delaware Township later became a part of Defiance Co when that county was created from southern Williams Co in 1845. My 3g-grandparents PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, who arrived in 1828 from elsewhere in Ohio (location unknown), settled in Section 10 of nearby Crane Township in northern Paulding Co. Both familes acquired land located along the north side of the Maumee River (as highlighted on the attached plats), and although the two families resided some five miles apart, they apparently established a close relationship, since four children from each family subsequently intermarried, as follows:

1)	Peter Blair Jr	m	Betsey (Hughes) Curtis	(1834)
2)	Abner F. Hughes	m	Angeline Blair	(1839)
3)	Joseph N. Blair	m	Abigail N. Hughes	(1841)
4)	Andre W. Hughes	m	Clarissa Blair	(1844)

JOSEPH N. BLAIR (1819-71) and ABIGAIL N. HUGHES (1826-95?) were my 2g-grandparents, and they married in Williams Co on 21 Oct, 1841. They eventually settled in Marks Township, Defiance Co, where they remained until his death. Their marriage produced twelve children (5S/7D), and their daughter ALMIRA SARENA BLAIR (1857-1941) was my g-grandmother. Following JOSEPH BLAIR's death in 1871, ABIGAIL BLAIR married CHRISTOPHER THOMPSON of Defiance Co in 1876, and they migrated to Montgomery Co, Kansas, in 1879, where they remained until their deaths.

As I mentioned on the phone, my 2g-grandparents JOSEPH & ABIGAIL (HUGHES) BLAIR settled on a farm in Mark Township (Defiance Co) some three miles north of where his parents resided in Paulding Co. Joseph's older brother, PETER BLAIR JR (1808-70), also settled in Defiance Co after he acquired land in the SW/4 of Section 28 of Delaware Township in 1829. This land was adjacent to SAMUEL HUGHES, Peter's future father-in-law. PETER BLAIR JR and his first wife (identity unknown) had previously been residing in Crane Township near his parents, and his young family was enumerated on Pg 160 of the 1830 Census of Crane Township. Since there is not a marriage record in Paulding Co for PETER BLAIR JR and his first wife, they may have married wherever it was in Ohio the PETER BLAIR SR family was residing before they moved to Paulding Co in 1828. Following the death of his first wife in 1830-32, PETER BLAIR JR married BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS, the daughter of his neighbor SAMUEL HUGHES, in ca 1834. Betsey had previously been married to HORATIO N. CURTIS of Paulding Co for about three years, but that marriage had apparently ended in divorce in 1832 or 1833, since HORATIO N. CURTIS is known to have married his second wife SUSANNAH WOODCOX in Paulding Co on 16 May, 1833. Incidentally, HORATIO & BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS had resided on property he owned in Section 10 of Crane Township that adjoined the property of PETER BLAIR SR, the father of PETER BLAIR JR. The marriage of HORATIO & BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS produced two children, i.e. 1) Robert W (1830), and 2) Elizabeth Jane (1832), both of whom were apparently raised by their father following the divorce. I have been unable to determine with certainty the number and identity of children that were born to PETER BLAIR JR's first marriage, but I am reasonably certain there were at least two, a daughter and a son, who I will discuss a little later.

In 1838 SAMUEL HUGHES sold 5 acres from the SW corner of his property in Section 29 to his son-in-law PETER BLAIR JR (Williams Co DB 2, Pg 84), and it was on this 5 acre tract that PETER BLAIR JR later established the Blair Cemetery. Although I have no knowledge concerning the total number of graves that exist in this cemetery, and very little knowledge on the identity of those who are buried there, I understand that at least three of the sons of PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR are known to be buried there, since their grave-markers are identifiable. These sons were:

1) PETER BLAIR JR (1808-1870)
2) JOSEPH NORMAN BLAIR (1819-1871) (my 2g-grandfather)
3) THOMAS BLAIR (1829-1858)

I understand that the grave of PETER BLAIR JR's third wife, SARAH (GORDON) BLAIR (1823-78), is also identifiable. I strongly suspect that Peter's second wife, BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS BLAIR (1808-46), is also buried in the Blair Cemetery, but her grave-marker has apparently not survived.

Lucy, you mentioned that your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR of Crane Township is also buried in the Blair Cemetery, that you are familiar with the cemetery, and that you have an inventory of all the graves there that are identifiable. Needless to say, I would certainly like to obtain a copy of this inventory if you can arrange same.

I have been aware of your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR of Crane Township, Paulding Co, for several years, but I have not been able to prove his identity. He evidently resided in Delaware Township of Defiance Co during his early years, but moved to Crane Township in Paulding Co sometime between 1850 and 1860. From census data it appears he was born in Ohio about 1828. I know that he married his second wife, AMANDA SMITH, in Paulding Co on 18 July, 1867, but I have been unable to establish the identity of his first wife JANE, or the date and place of their marriage. When the 1850 Census was conducted, Joseph and his first wife Jane were enumerated in Delaware Township (Pg 57), and since they were residing near two other Blair families (Peter Jr and and my ancestor Joseph), I have always suspected that your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR was the son of PETER BLAIR JR from Peter's first marriage, and if so, would have been the nephew of my ancestor JOSEPH N. BLAIR.

Although I don't know when or where my 3g-grandparents PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR died, I am reasonably certain that both died in Crane Township, Paulding Co, OH. They were both enumerated there in the 1860 Census (Pg 138), residing on their farm with their son OLIVER BLAIR and his family. Peter was listed as age 80, Beaujolise as age 65, but I believe Peter's age may have been overstated since he was shown to be age 60 in the 1850 Census. The birth place for Peter was shown to be Michigan, while the birth place for Beaujolise was shown to be Ohio (?). Incidentally, your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR and his family, who were residing nearby, were enumerated on Pg 142 of the 1860 Census of Crane Township.

PETER BLAIR SR and his family had been enumerated in Crane Township of Paulding Co in the 1830 Census (Pg 158) and the 1840 Census (Pg 27), but for some unknown reason were enumerated in the Noble Township of Defiance Co (Pg 46) when the 1850 Census was conducted. In the 1850 Census Peter was listed as age 60, Beaujolise as age 54, and both indicated they had been born in France. The 1830 Census and the 1840 Census both showed Peter to be age 40-50, and the resulting conflict in age has certainly not helped in determining the correct age for Peter. PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR were the parents of at least ten children (3S/7D), identified as follows: 1) Peter Jr, 2) Mary, 3) Catharine, 4) Rebecca, 5) Angeline, 6) Joseph, 7) Nancy, 8) Oliver, 9) Clarissa, and 10) Thomas.

Being that OLIVER BLAIR and his family left Paulding Co and moved to Hillsdale Co, Michigan sometime before 1870, I suspect that one or both of his parents probably died before his departure from Paulding Co, since the 1870 Census of Hillsdale Co, MI, (Pg 220) did not list either of Oliver's parents among his household. I suspect that PETER BLAIR SR and his wife BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, whenever it was they died, were both buried in the Blair Cemetery near Sherwood, OH, although there are apparently no identifiable grave-markers for them.

As mentioned earlier, I have often suspected that your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR of Crane Township was the son of PETER BLAIR JR by his first wife, and if so, then your Joseph would have been the oldest son of PETER BLAIR JR and the oldest grandson of PETER BLAIR SR, and as such may have inherited the farm owned by PETER BLAIR SR. I further suspect that PETER BLAIR JR had a daughter by his first marriage named CLARISSA BLAIR (b 1830-32), who married NICHOLAS ETCHIE in Defiance Co on 13 March, 1851.

The marriage of PETER & BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS BLAIR produced three children, i.e. 1) Mary Ann (1835), 2) Nathaniel Ladd (1841), and 3) Benjamin Franklin (1844) prior to Betsey's death in ca 1846. PETER BLAIR JR subsequently married his third wife, SARAH GORDON, in Defiance Co on 3 Nov, 1847. The marriage of PETER & SARAH (GORDON) BLAIR produced nine children (4S/5D), identified as follows: 1) Thomas (1848), 2) Peter (1850), 3) Nancy (1852), 4) Robert (1855), 5) Laura (1857), 6) Harriett (1859), 7) Evaline (1861), 8) America (1863), and 9) George (1866).

In the 1870 Census of Paulding Co (Pg 505), your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR and family were enumerated in Crane Township, and listed among his household was an ELIZABETH BLAIR (age 84) who I have been unable to identify. However, if Joseph was the oldest son of PETER BLAIR JR, and therefore the oldest grandson of PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, there is a possibility that this ELIZABETH BLAIR may have been his widowed grandmother BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, and if so, she must have moved into the household of her grandson JOSEPH BLAIR after her son OLIVER BLAIR migrated to Michigan. If this was in fact Joseph's grandmother, then the full name of our ancestor BEAUJOLISE BLAIR must have been BEAUJOLISE ELIZABETH BLAIR. There are some inconsistencies with all this that I have been concerned about, however. If Elizabeth and Beaujolise were the same person, then the age of 84 shown for Elizabeth in the 1870 Census was probably overstated, since previous census data for Beaujolise had indicated she was born around 1794, so if Elizabeth was in fact Beaujolise, then she should have been about age 76 in 1870. I do suspect, however, that Beaujolise was some older than was shown in the 1850 Cenus and the 1860 Census, because we know her oldest child Peter Jr was born in 1808, and she would have been only age 14 when he was born had she been born in 1794. Also I see that Elizabeth's place of birth was listed as Canada in the 1870 Census, while Beaujolais had indicated in the 1850 Census that her place of birth was France. Since Elizabeth was not listed among the household of JOSEPH BLAIR (ED 122, Sh 21, Ln 48) when the 1880 Census of Paulding Co was conducted, I assume that she died sometime after 1870. In the 1880 Census of Hillsdale Co, Michigan, OLIVER BLAIR indicated that both of his parents had been born in Michigan.

As you can see, there is conflicting evidence concerning where PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR were born, i.e. France, Canada, or Michigan. However, I have strong doubts that either of them was born in Michigan, and if so, then they were born in either Canada or France, and being foreign born, would have been considered immigrants in the U.S. There is mention in several of our old his first wife, and if so, then your Joseph would have been the oldest son of PETER BLAIR JR and the oldest grandson of PETER BLAIR SR, and as such may have inherited the farm owned by PETER BLAIR SR. I further suspect that PETER BLAIR JR had a daughter by his first marriage named CHARISSA BLAIR (b 1830-32), who married NICHOLAS ETCHIE in Defiance Co on 13 March, 1851.

The marriage of PETER & BETSEY (HUGHES) CURTIS BLAIR produced three children, i.e. 1) Mary Ann (1835), 2) Nathaniel Ladd (1841), and 3) Benjamin Franklin (1844) prior to Betsey's death in ca 1846. In the 1870 Census of Paulding Co (Pg 595), your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR and family were enumerated in Crane Township, and listed among his household was an ELIZABETH BLAIR (age 84) who I have been unable to identify. However, if Joseph was the oldest son of PETER BLAIR JR, and therefore the oldest grandson of PETER & BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, there is a possibility that this ELIZABETH BLAIR may have been his widowed grandmother BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, and if so, she must have moved into the household of her grandson JOSEPH BLAIR after her son OLIVER BLAIR migrated to Michigan. Copied for Pat Cochran 4-15-97

BLAIR family records that our BLAIR immigrant ancestors were French-speaking Canadians, so I suspect that PETER BLAIR SR and his wife BEAUJOLISE were both of French descent, but were both probably born in Canada. Although I suspect they married in Canada, it appears that Beaujolise was very young when they married, so they may have eloped to Michigan and married there. Since it is known that their first child PETER BLAIR JR was born at Detroit, Michigan, in 1808, it is a reasonable assumption that they entered the U.S. from Canada at Port Huron, MI, and probably remained for a while in or near Detroit before they migrated to Ohio. I have been unable to determine when they left Michigan, or where in Ohio they settled after leaving Michigan, but they are known to have resided elsewhere in Ohio for several years before they migrated to Paulding Co in 1828. My 2g-grandfather JOSEPH N. BLAIR was born in Ohio in 1819, but the county where he was born is unknown.

I have some doubts concerning the correct spelling of the first name of my ancestor BEAUJOLISE BLAIR, since I have not found any two records that spelled it the same, but I believe this rendition is fairly accurate.

You mentioned an interest in the ancestry of my 3g-grandmother BETSEY (WHEDON) HUGHES, who was born in 1780 in New Haven Co, CT. She was the daughter of DENNISON & MARY (PARRISH) WHEDON, but I know nothing about her siblings. She married SAMUEL HUGHES at Hebron, Washington Co, NY, so I assume Betsey's family had migrated there from CT before she married Samuel. Incidentally, Samuel and Betsey were first cousins. Samuel's mother Grace Whedon was the sister of Betsey's father Dennison Whedon. I have also seen some publications where the surname of this family was spelled WHEATON rather than WHEDON.

In conclusion, I will be most anxious to hear from you, Lucy, and to learn what, if any, was the relationship between your ancestor JOSEPH BLAIR and my ancesor JOSEPH N. BLAIR. Your comments on the information I have presented, including any additions or corrections you would like to offer, will be welcome. Any additional BLAIR information you are able to provide will also be appreicated.

Sincerely,

Chuck

Dear Lucy,

I finally made it to northwest Ohio this past summer, and while there I managed to visit the Blair Cemetery (near Sherwood) where several of my BLAIR ancestors are buried. Needless to say, I was disappointed to discover so few grave markers have survived. I noticed one of the surviving markers is that of a JOSEPH BLAIR, whose marker indicates he was a Civil War veteran, having served in Company B, 189th Ohio Infantry Regiment, of the Union Army. Although not certain, I thought perhaps this was the first husband of your ancestor AMANDA JANE SMITH (1847-1917).

I recently spent two weeks in Washington, DC, conducting family research at the National Archives. While there I viewed the military record of the above JOSEPH BLAIR, and discovered he was indeed the husband of your ancestor AMANDA JANE SMITH, having enlisted as a Private in Company B, 189th Ohio Infantry Regiment, at Defiance Co, OH, on 15 Feb, 1865. His enlistment record identified him as JOSEPH BLAIR JR of Defiance Co, OH, age 41, a farmer, born in Kings Co, OH. JOSEPH remained with this unit for the duration of the Civil War, and was discharged on 28 Sept, 1865.

The military file on this JOSEPH BLAIR also contains an application for a Widow's Pension that was submitted to the Dept of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions, on 22 Jan, 1917, by his former widow AMANDA (BLAIR) WHEATON of Defiance Co, OH. In case you do not have same, I have enclosed a copy of this application along with all the ensuing correspondence. On this application AMANDA stated she was the former widow of the JOSEPH BLAIR who had served in Co B, 189th Ohio Infantry Regiment, that her maiden name was AMANDA J. SMITH, that she was born 9 Sept, 1848, in Crawford Co, OH, that she had married said JOSEPH BLAIR on 18 July, 1867, in Paulding Co, OH, and that he had died in Paulding Co, OH, on 13 May, 1881. AMANDA further stated that she had then married ANSON WHEATON on 16 Sept, 1883, that he had died 16 Nov, 1916, in Defiance Co, OH, and that as a result she was again a widow. AMANDA's application was rejected on 2 June, 1917, on the grounds she had remarried after the death of her husband JOSEPH BLAIR. Since her second husband ANSON WHEATON had also died prior to the date she had submitted her original application, AMANDA filed an appeal to this ruling on 27 June, 1917, and the previous rejection was reversed by the Dept of Interior on 22 Dec, 1917. However, AMANDA died on 22 Dec, 1917, so she never collected any of the approved pension.

When he enlisted in the Union Army on 15 Feb, 1865, JOSEPH BLAIR indicated he was age 41, so he was probably born in 1824. The 1850 and 1860 Census data on him supports this age, while the 1870 and 1880 Census data shows him to be a few years younger:

Census	Location	ID	Age	Probable Year Born
1850	Defiance Co, OH	Pg 57	26	(1824)
1860	Paulding Co, OH	Pg 142	35	(1825)
1870	Paulding Co, OH	Pg 505	42	(1827)
1880	Paulding Co, OH	ED 122, Sh 21	50	(1829)

If JOSEPH BLAIR was born in 1824, then he was apparently 23 years older than his wife AMANDA JANE SMITH, who was his second marriage. AMANDA of course had not been previously married.

On his enlistment record, JOSEPH BLAIR indicated he was born in Kings Co, OH, but I am not aware of a County in Ohio with that name. Perhaps there was a County given this name originally, but for some reason was later changed. Should you know if Ohio did have a Kings County at one time, I would certainly appreciate knowing which presentday County had that name.

I still suspect the land in Paulding Co (SW/4 of Sec 10, T-3N, R-2E) on which JOSEPH BLAIR was residing at the time of his death in 1881 was the same property that had been acquired by a PETER BLAIR in the late 1820's. I still suspect JOSEPH was the grandson of this PETER BLAIR. While I was in that area of Paulding Co this summer, I visited the property, which is located on the north bank of the Maumee River, and found it is still being farmed and is still considered to be prime farmland.

Hope to hear from you one of these days, Lucy.

Sincerely,
Chuck

Dear Lucy,

I am sorry I have taken so long in getting an answer off to you. I have been waiting too see if my brother would send some additional information, but so far nothing. I called him (he lives near Seattle) when I received your letter, and he said that from the research he has been doing, there were WHEADONS in Sommersetshire, and he would see if he had anything.

Have you done any research at one of the Mormon churches? They have a Family History Center with all kinds of information, computers, microfilms, microfische, etc. There is no cost to use this facility, and it is open to everyone.

I am enclosing some Family Group Sheets of my WHEADON line, and as you can see, we have not been able to trace back any further than 1592. As a result we are going into other shires. I have not done much research for the past few years, leaving it up to one of my brothers. If anything else comes up, I will let you know.

Thanks for sending me your information.

Sincerely,

Jerry

Dear Lucy,

Thanks so much for your letter of 2 July and all the great material you included with same. Needless to say, it will take me some time to analyze an digest all this wonderful material. I am especially grateful for all the new family information you were able to provide on the ancestors of my 5g-grandfather DANIEL WHEADON (b 1726). What a pleasant surprise it was to learn that DANIEL's grandparents THOMAS & HANNAH (SUITLIFFE) WHEADON were also your 7g-grandparents, and that we are therefore distant cousins. I can't thank you enough for the Family Group Sheets you have provided on my 7g-grandparents THOMAS & HANNAH (SUTLIFFE) WHEADON, my 6g-grandparents THOMAS & EUNICE (SWAIN) WHEADON, and my 5g-grandparents DANIEL & ABIGAIL (GRANGER) WHEADON.

As you know, my 3g-grandmother was BETSEY (WHEADON) HUGHES, the daughter of DENNISON & MARY (PARISH) WHEADON, and her father DENNISON WHEADON was the son of DANIEL & ABIGAIL (GRANGER) WHEADON. Since I have no information whatsoever on the siblings of my 3g-grandmother, any information you might have on the family of DENNISON & MARY (PARISH) WHEADON will also be appreciated.

The inventory of the Blair Cemetery in Defiance Co, OH, (Delaware Township) is greatly appreciated. I was surprised to discover that my 2g-grandfather JOSEPH NORMAN BLAIR (1819-1871) is not listed in the inventory. I can only assume that his grave-marker has not survived.

Thanks also for the Family Group Sheet on JOSEPH & AMANDA (SMITH) BLAIR of Paulding Co, OH. Since JOSEPH BLAIR was the first husband of your ancestor AMANDA SMITH, I realize you are not blood related to him, but any other information you might have on him in your files will certainly be appreciated. I still suspect that JOSEPH was related in some manner to my BLAIR ancestors of Paulding Co, OH. Incidentally, I notice you have shown JOSEPH BLAIR was born on 10 Sept, 1837. Based on Census data, there is reason to believe that his birth year was probably 1827, rather than 1837:

Census	Location	ID	Age	Probable Year Born
1850	Defiance Co, OH	Pg 57	26	(1823)
1860	Paulding Co, OH	Pg 142	35	(1824)
1870	Paulding Co, OH	Pg 505	42	(1827)
1880	Paulding Co, OH	ED 122, S 21	50	(1829)

In the 1860 Census, his oldest child (son Francis N) was listed as age 9, so I suspect JOSEPH and his first wife JANE probably married in 1849, which would have made JOSEPH age 22 when he married if he was born in 1827 as suspected. Is there any possibility that the 1837 birth date shown for JOSEPH BLAIR on your Family Group Sheet is a typing error? You have shown that JOSEPH BLAIR died on 13 May, 1881, but you did not indicate where he died or where he is buried. I believe you mentioned on the phone that he is buried in the Blair Cemetery in Defiance Co, and if so, then it appears his grave-marker has not survived. Since JOSEPH was residing in Paulding Co (Crane Township) when the 1880 Census was conducted on 12 June, 1880, I suspect he was still living there when he died in May, 1881, but I assume you have been unable to document same.

You have indicated that the marriage of JOSEPH & AMANDA (SMITH) BLAIR produced two children, i.e. 1) Willis (b 1871), and 2) James (b 1877). Do you know if there are any surviving descendants from these two children, and if so, do you know their present whereabouts? JOSEPH BLAIR appears to have brought three children (Francis, Alline, Minnie) from his first marriage into the household when he married AMANDA SMITH in 1867, so I assume AMANDA was involved with their upbringing thereafter. Any information you might have on the three children from JOSEPH's first marriage will also be welcome.

As you know, Lucy, I am reasonably certain that my 3g-grandparents SAMUEL & BETSEY (WHEADON) HUGHES both died and were buried in Delaware Township, Defiance Co, OH, but I have been unable to document same. You mentioned in our last telephone conversation that you believed there was a HUGHES Cemetery in Delaware Township of Defiance Co, OH. Since I am not aware of this cemetery, you indicated you would try to obtain some information on same, so I am looking forward to seeing the results of your findings.

Please keep me advised of any expenses you experience on my behalf, and I will reimburse same. Enclosed is $2.00 to cover your postage expense for 2 July. Thanks again for all the fabulous information you have provided, and for your willingness to share same with me.

Sincerely,

Chuck

Dear Mary Elizabeth,

Sorry to be so late in answering your letter. With all the Christmas hubbub, it was misplaced on my desktop. Shingles certainly are no fun, are they!! I don't believe I've ever experienced anything so painful. MIne started with a left earache and sore throat in March. The pain from the earache caused me to see a physician, who placed me on penicillin..at the time that I saw the physician, I had sores in my mouth and on my tongue and I inquired about that also. She said, "Oh, I think that is from the ear infection". The next evening, I awoke during the night and looked into the mirror and saw eruptions all over my chin and a path going over to my ear and it suddenly dawned on me that I had shingles! Because the eruption was so close to my left eye, I decided to not wait until my physician was in and instead went to the E.R. The doctor there stood about ten feet away from me and said " I can see from here that you have shingles" He prescribed oral Acyclovir and sent me home, where I remained in bed all day and vomited frequently. Jerry called my family dr., who said " No one ever died from the shingles" " See the ophthalmologist tomorrow for her eye." Jerry called the ophthalmologist that evening and he prescribed compazine to control the vomiting and told him that he would see me the next day. I saw him the next day and he said " You belong in the hospital". He called my family dr. and when my family dr. and the other dr. who had first seen me...saw me..they said.."Oh, we didn't know you were this bad!!!" So I was admitted to the hospital and placed on IV Acyclovir and another IV antibiotic(can't think of the name)..placed in isolation..(had strep and staph in the eruptions...was kept in for a week. As for consequences..I couldn't stand to be outside for several weeks..when the air blew on my face..it aggravated the pain..also had so much pain in my lower teeth, especially on the left side..resorted to using sensitive toothpaste and rubbing benzodent on my gums. The pain was similar to having an abscessed tooth..even went to the dentist..who x-rayed and examined..and couldn't find any reason for my teeth to give me so much pain. Recently the pain has started up again...same process..x-rays and nothing... my chin will begin to crawl-almost like spider webs on my face..and then the pain starts up again in my teeth. By the way, just before the shingles erupted, I had the feeling of spider webs on my face..did you have that symptom also?

I was told that I would probably have the scars on my face for six months, but those have faded away. No one had a very definitive idea of how long the pain would last..have heard that some have had it for years afterwards. There is also the possibility of reoccurrence. Although my doctor thinks my attack was so severe that the probability isn't too great.

Viruses are nasty…they act in such mysterious ways. Can't tell you much about your unsteady gait. Have heard of several cases of Bell's Palsy this past year and shingles.
The chickenpox (herpes) virus lies dormant in one's spinal column. I think my epidural block and injection of cortisone into the spine Dec. 10, 1994 may have had something to do with stirring up my virus. Have you read much about homeopathic medicine or nutritional healing? One of the supplements suggested after shingles is L-Lysine(amino acid) 500 mg. twice daily-important for healing…also Vitamin C plus bioflavonoids 2,000 mg. twice daily.aids in destroying the virus and boosting the immune system. I take the Vitamin C daily and when I remember..take the lysine. You might try these. Let me know how you are doing..

You can't imagine how happy I was to receive a Christmas card from Ralph! When I saw the Millersburg postmark and the big scrawling handwriting, I was so relieved. I know his days are numbered, but I would like him to live on..120 or more..as long as he feels well enough… he is such a wonderful person. Can you imagine someone 101 writing their own Christmas cards…. he even wrote inside " A Merry Christmas to the Weaver Family". I think of him often. If he is still around this spring, I think we will plan a trip to Millersburg again.
Give Ralph our love when you see him again.

Well, this was a windy letter..don't know if anything I mentioned will help you or not, but will keep you in my prayers for a complete recovery.

With love,

Lucy Weaver

Subject: [[WHEATON]] Re: [[WHEATON]] Wheatons of Vermont

Theses two brothers were descended from Thomas Whedon of Branford. CT.
Ansel Whedon, (1765-1826) had older brothers: Joseph (1756- 178?4, Rev. War Vet); Ebenezer (m.1. Esther 1760-1802 who m.2. Edmund Rogers, Jr); David (1771-1856); and Edmund (1760-183?6).
Ansel had children:
i. John; ii. Ansel, Jr.; and iii. Samuel.

David had children:
i. Loona; ii. Nathan; and iii. David.

Edmund had children: i. Cyntha; and ii. Delight.

The children of Joseph, and Ebenezer are unknown.

Hi Lucy,

Silvester is my G-G-grandfather, his fourth child Anson Joel Wheaton is my G-grandfather, Anson's fifth child is my grandmother Lucy Anjalina Wheaton.

I live in Jackson, Mi. My mom has the 1848 bible, she was the youngest of fifteen children.

I made copies of the papers that were stuffed in the bible one was an obituary for Silvesters youngest child Sarah who died from Typhoid fever about two weeks before her seventeenth birthday. Another obit. was for Caroline Tracy, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Robinson, who passed away 8-7-1885. I believe Silvester's older sister Nancy was married to a Robinson, so Caroline may have been her daughter.

I also e-mailed myself a website that has a lot of information about Thomas Wheaton and Ann Small the stories are rather interesting. It also gives lots of names and dates right down to William and Sarah (Hall) Wheaton. I will forward it next.

Hope to hear from you soon !

One lives right here in Defiance and is a medical doctor and is married to my husband's first cousin. Just found this out recently. Small world! Where do you live? Never have found out who Thomas' parents were. I think someone picked that Varient up from a genealogy that used varient to mean various spelling of the name Wheadon/Wheaton. Another relative has been to Salt Lake City several times and still hasn't found out much about thomas and Anne Small ? Harvey. Hope to hear back from you. I happened onto the Wheaton family in Holmes Co. when I saw the name Anson. My grandfather was Anson Elmer, his father was Anson William. I know you have an Anson in the Silvester Wheaton line also(if I am not mistaken).

Even if they considered themselves as being married, and even acted that way; they were in my mind (and records) not married.

Yes, I have communicated with the person whose cousin sent that Varient info to the LDS.
He took that name by a misinterpretation of Jacobus' book, "Ancient Families of Ancient New Haven"
Once something is sent to them it is impossible to withdraw, change or correct it!
Once it is in the LDS records many people take it as Gospel.
IF I had to guess, I would guess that Thomas' father's name was also Thomas.
It seemed to be the naming pattern in the family to name the first born son after the father.

No. I haven't, and that would provide a good clue as to when he was apprenticed, and hence where..

Greetings,

Your schedule is amazing! How fortunate for Jerry that his devoted spouse is also an RN! I have trouble getting myself to the physical therapist's lab tree times a week. I can't see how you manage to keep everything under control.

I'm trying to decide which lines I'll plan to work on at SLC. As I search through my papers, I'll look for the Meigs court case for you. I thought I had sent you that a while back. I meant to send it, I know. I'll also try to remember where I put those baptismal records from Montgomery County, NY. One of my incomplete files has to do with Jonathan Wheaton's life in the late 1790's in NY. I have very little about him at that period.

I know the family record of his children shows sons born in Schoharie County, but I've never found land ownership for him in that county. (I've been there different times, without finding Schoharie records for him.) Then I did find that baptismal record in Ames, in Montgomery County.
That's just across the border of Montgomery County, near the church where the boys were baptized.

Later, when I was in Susquehanna County in PA, I found him in some of the early county history material. One church history included him among the founders of the first church there. He was designated as Jonathan Wheaton, from Otsego County, NY. Schoharie, Otsego, and Montgomery counties all come together in the same area.

Otsego, at Cooperstown, has a nice public library with a professional librarian in charge of a strong collection. I'd like to go back there, but I can't go alone.

We also have a cousin at Corning, whom I'd like to see again. (She's from the line of my grandfather's brother, Avery.) She is near where Jonathan lived, west of the Finger Lakes, after he left [illegible], around 1811. That was before Jonathan headed toward Ohio.

You can see that I have plenty of loose ends in my Wheaton research. I could do nothing but Wheatons at the Family History Library for the two weeks we'll be there. This time we aren't connected with any conference or institute, so I should make good use of my hours in the library, just finishing up Jonathan's activites and migration from CT to OH.

I could spend considerable time tracing a lot of tag ends just looking for Jonathan's daughter, Anna (Wheaton) Porter, and her missing brother, Jonathan Schuyler Wheaton. Then, later, there is a girl, Mary Wheaton, supposedly born in Millersburg, except she doesn't fit into Anson Wheaton's family, and there is no one else to claim her. There is always the chance that she could be someone's illegitimate daughter who was raisd in the family of Anson. His daughter of that name died fairly young so this girl doesn't fit in there. Just one more loose end!

Obviously, I could go on and on! I should use my time trying to locate the items you want. I keep trying to do better, but without notable success. I'll let you knoew if I find the documents you need. I'm sorry that I haven't sent them long ago.

You and Jerry are in my prayers.   Love, Mary Elizabeth.

I believe that you people who had WHEATON/WHEDON families in VT and upstate NY will find that they are descended from families of that name that lived for many generations in Branford, New Haven Co., CT, whose mmigrant ancestor was Thomas WHEDON who m. Mary Ann Small. Thomas was borm abt. 1635 in (Axminster, Devon), Eng.
He was "of New Haven" on 20 Apr 1658 when he bought lands in Branford (LR1:275-6).

He was living in Branford by Jan. 20, 1667 when he signed the New Plantation and Church Covenant. ("Early Records of Brainford, now Branford, CT" "Genealogies of Connecticut Families" Vol. III P-W, p. 465-468]. He was there in Mar 1668/9 when he helped build a dam there (LR1:354).

"Thomas Whedon ... came to New Haven with John Meigs, who, in 1648, bought the lot on the corner of Chapel and Church Streets, where the Cutler building now stands...."

Before leaving England Thomas Whedon had been bound to Meigs as an apprentice to learn his art of tanner. Thomas took the oath of fidelity in 1657; married, May 24, 1651, Ann Small, at New Haven; moved to Branford, and his name appears on the lists of proprietors, January 17, 1676, as having five children, and an estate valued at 96 pounds; he died in 1691, leaving a wife and five children.

The Lesson of Salem

After 300 years, people are still fascinated by the notorious Puritan witch hunts—maybe because history keeps repeating itself

They came for Martha Carrier at the end of May. There was plenty of evidence against her: Allen Toothaker testified that several of his cattle had suffered "strange deaths" soon after he and Carrier had an argument, and little Phoebe Chandler said that shortly before being stricken with terrible pains, she had heard Carrier's voice telling her she was going to be poisoned. Even Carrier's children spoke against her: they confessed that they, too, were witches and that it was their mother who had converted them to evil. (Their statements were not introduced in court, however—perhaps because two of her sons had to be tied up until they bled from the mouth before they would confess. A small daughter spoke more freely; she told officials that her mother was a black cat.) Most damning of all was the evidence offered by half a dozen adolescent girls, who accused Carrier of tormenting them and who fell into writhing fits as she stood before the magistrate. They shrieked that they had seen the Devil whispering into Carrier's ear. "You see you look upon them and they fall down," said the magistrate. "It is a shameful thing that you should mind these folks that are out of their wits," answered Carrier. "I am wronged." On Aug. 19, 1692, she was hanged on Gallows Hill in Salem, Mass., for the crime of witchcraft.

Last week marked the 300th anniversary of Carrier's death, an execution carried out during the most notorious summer in Massachusetts history. Between June and September of 1692, 14 women and 5 men were hanged in Salem as witches, and 1 man was tortured to death. Scores more were named as witches and imprisoned. "What will be the issue of these troubles, God only knows," wrote Thomas Brattle, a merchant in nearby Boston who was horrified by the events. "I am afraid that ages will not wear off that reproach and those stains which these things will leave behind upon our land."

He was right: even now the Salem witch trials haunt the imaginations of hundreds of thousands of Americans, tourists and history buffs alike, who visit Salem for a glimpse of our Puritan past at its most chilling. This year Salem is getting more attention than ever: the city is sponsoring an array of programs commemorating the Tercentenary, including dramatizations of the trials and symposiums on the legal and medical aspects of identifying witches in the 17th century. With the participation of such organizations as Amnesty International, the Tercentenary has placed a special emphasis on human rights and the role of the individual conscience in times of terror. In 1692, those who "confessed" to witchcraft were spared; only those who insisted on their innocence were hanged. Earlier this month a memorial to the victims was unveiled (page 66), and on that occasion the first annual Salem Award, created to honor a significant contribution to social justice, was presented to Gregory Allen Williams of Inglewood, Calif. In the midst of the Los Angeles riots last spring, Williams, who is black, risked his life to save an Asian-American attacked by a mob.

The terror in Salem: T. H. Matteson's florid painting, 'The Trial of George Jacobs,' from 1855, and a 1702 treatise on witchcraft

At the heart of the Tercentenary is the awareness that the witch trials represent more than just a creepy moment in history: they stand for the terrible victory of prejudice over reason, and fear over courage—a contest that has been replayed, with different actors, again and again since 1692. Modern witch hunts include the roundup of Japanese-Americans during World War II, the pursuit of Communists in the '50s and, according to an increasing number of critics, some of today's outbreaks of community hysteria over purported sex abuse plenty of travel to smooth out bumps and keep the wheels flat on the road.

If it is humanly possible to make a five speed manual transmission shift gears any smoother and quicker, then it has been done in the del Sol. Which makes driving the car more of a joy. Fun, again.

Or enjoy the available four speed automatic transmission with lockup torque converter. It's fun, too.

The engine is another pleasure and source of amazement. It knows to breathe in more air as it runs faster. Sounds almost human, doesn't it?

Engineers designed an engine to produce more power when you need it. Like passing another car. And to be more efficient at slower speeds. Like cruising around town.

They call it variable valve timing. It works wonders, and you'll find it in the del Sol Si shown here.

You'll find four wheel disc brakes, too. A front stabilizer bar to add to the fun. And a driver's side airbag which provides additional protection when the seat belt is fastened, as you know.

The del Sol was created from top to bottom to make driving more enjoyable. Any less would be to err.

Description:

Offered is this remarkable pension application from Jonathan WHEATON. 3 sides of 13 x 7 1/2 paper PLUS a one page SIGNED inventory of his belongs stating he has no landed property and must support himself and wife with property listed. He is, in 1820 at time of application, living in Hardy Township, Cochocton Co OH. He also signs application. The docment states in part: "age 65 years, ...served in Revolutionary War enlisted as a private soldier in the Connecticut line in Feb 1775, in John Sedgwick's co; Col Belice(SP?) regiment and remained for the eight months and was dischared at Ticonderoga...enlisted on year in 1776 in Capt Titis WATSONs company, etc CT line discharge at Fort ? and 1777 Col Ninan SWIFT...and then Capt Abbot CHAPMANs Co a year and 6 months and hired a substitute for 3 months and I was listed as a Deserter and then got permit to return..... Wife by the name of Penelope her age is 64 and she is very infirm and but little able to contribute to the support...Research indicates that Jonathan was born about 1751. I did find a Jonathan WHEATON who m 1778 Penelope LACY at New Milford, Litchfield Co CT. A very nice document with several interesting service notations and a wonderful RW research project as well. A Jonathan WHEATON is listed in Roll Box 19 CT. Although the document is guaranteed to be old and as stated I am unable to guarantee research, but offer it as a direction. Buyer to pay $2.50 first or $3.50 Priority S/H. MA buyers add 5% sales tax for state. Thanks for looking:>)

MICHAEL TAINTOR

Was one of the principal inhabitants of Branford, drew up the "New Plantation and Church Covenant" above inserted, still preserved in the records in his hand-writing, and he was probably the author of it. A good facsimile of his autography and of the records accompany this article. The autograph of a progenitor of a highly respectable race must be viewed by his descendants with much satisfaction; and not only by his descendants, but by all true lovers of antiquarian matters.

MICHAEL TAINTOR came from Wales, and in 1653 was master of a vessel trading to Virginia. He afterwards settled in Branford, and died there in 1673. In 1667 he was one of four persons "employed and empowered by the town of Branford to buy the house and lands of Richard Harrison." In 1669 he was of the number chosen by the town to settle certain difficulties between Branford and New Haven, respecting bounds. The next year he was employed upon a like matter relative to the bounds of Branford and Guilford. About the same time he was judge of a court at Branford, and he was frequently a member of the General Court or Assembly of Connecticut. At his decease his estate amounted, as per inventory, to £166 4s. 10d. His wife Elizabeth died July, 1659.

EARLY RECORDS OF BRAINFORD, NOW BRANFORD, CT.

[From materials principally furnished by MR. CHARLES M. TAINTOR of Shelburne, Mass.]

In the accounts of Branford which we have seen, we do not find any reason given why that name was made choice of. It was for a time called Brainford, which was probably as correct as Branford, neither giving a very precise idea of its probable origin. It is our opinion that it was so named after Brentford in England; if so, its signification is perfectly apparent. Our fathers have left us much in the dark in respect to the reasons they may have had for naming many of our towns; and although we have no Barnstaple, or Brentford, there can be but little doubt that our towns of Barnstable and Branford were so named to perpetuate those.

Whether some of the early inhabitants of Branford came originally from Brentford in the county of Middlesex, England, or whether some of their friends or connections distinguished themselves on the side of the Parliament there in 1642, we have not the means within our reach to decide. However, we are told that Branford received its name in 1644. It may be interesting to our readers to note that Brentford is early mentioned in English history. There was a bloody conflict between Edmund Ironside and the Danes here, A. D. 1016, and in the time of Mary, six persons were burnt at the stake on account of their religion. The famous battle-ground of Hounslow-heath is near it. In its church is an inscription to John Horne, father to the well known John Horne Tooke. The last Duke Schomberg was Earl of Brentford. He died in 1719.

Branford was purchased by the New Haven colonists in December, 1638, a few days after they had bought New Haven of Momanquin, sachem of that place, then called Quinnipiac. In 1644, a tract of land was sold by New Haven to Mr. William Swain and others, for the accommodation of those persons in Wethersfield who wished to remove from thence. Sept. 5th, 1640, the General Court at New Haven made a grant of a tract, the Indian name of which was Totokett, to Samuel Eaton, brother of Governor Eaton, upon the condition of his procuring a number of his friends from England to make a settlement in that tract of country. Mr. Eaton failed in fulfilling the conditions. About three years after, the subject was acted upon thus: "Totokett, a place fit for a small plantation betwixt New Haven and Guilford, and purchased from the Indians, was granted to Mr. Swayne and some others in Weathersfield, they repaying the charges, which are betwixt £12 and £13, and joining in one jurisdiction with New Haven and the fornamed plantations, upon the same fundamental agreement settled in October 1643, which, they duly considering, accepted."*

The following is a verbatim copy of the "NEW PLANTATION AND CHURCH COVENANT" of Branford, with its original signers' names:—

"Jan. 20: 1667 — forasmuch as y^{t} it appeares y^{t} the undertaking & the settlement of this place of Brainford was secured by & for men of congregationall principles as to church orders according to y^{e} platforme of disceplaine agreed on by the senate or thare abouts drane from y^{e} word of God in y^{e} which we y^{t} remaine hear can say we have found much peace & quiatnes to our great comfort for y^{e} which we desire for to bless God & that it may so remaine unto such as do continue thair abode in this place & to such as

From a letter from A.D. Hiller, Assistant to Administrator re: Rev. War Pensions: Claim No. 40687 Jonathan Wheaten enlisted in Litchfield County, Connecticut, in 1775, served eight months as private in Captain John Sedgwick's Connecticut Company. He enlisted in February 1776, served one year in Captain Titus Watson's company, Colonel Burrall's Connecticut regiment. He enlisted in April 1777, served in Captain Titus Watson's Company, Colonel Herman Swift's Connecticut regiment, after serving four months he reenlisted in Captain Albert Chapman's company in the same regiment, was in the battles of Germantown and Monmouth, served one year and six months, when he hired a substitute for three months, but stayed away three months over his time and was reported a deserter; he sent to his regiment and got a permit to return to duty, which he did and served twelve months and was honorably discharged in August, 1780. The soldier, Jonathan Wheaten, was allowed pension on his application, executed April 14, 1818, then a resident of Pulteney, Steuben county, New York. He was residing on October 14, 1820 in Hardy Township, Coshocton County, Ohio and then aged sixty-five years, eight months and nineteen days. In 1820, his wife, Penelope, was sixty-four years of age. Mr. W. W. Candler

Detroit, Michigan

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War records of Ebenezer Whedon and Jonathan Wheaton.

Revolutionary War data furnished by this office are obtained from claims made to the United States for pension and bounty land based upon military service of soldiers in that war.

A search of the records fails to show such claims on file on account of the Revolutionary War service of Ebenezer Whedon; the surname has been searched under similar spellings.

The data which follow were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim, S. 40687, based upon the Revolutionary War service of Jonathan Wheaten, as his signature is found in the claim.

The date and place of birth of this soldier are not shown in the claim, nor are the names of his parents given.

Jonathan Wheaten enlisted in Litchfield County, Connecticut, in 1775, served eight months as private in Captain John Sedgwick's Connecticut company. He enlisted in February, 1776, served one year in Captain Titus Watson's company, Colonel Burrall's Connecticut regiment, He enlisted in April, 1777, served in Cap-

{ Revolutionary claim, Act 18th March, 1818. }

To the public-school system our subject is indebted for his educational privileges. At the age of nineteen he began to learn the carpenter's trade, but made his home under the parental roof until his marriage. On the 13th of February, 1883, in Henry township, was solemnized the marriage of Charles Auverter and Miss Della Beatty, who was born February 22, 1862, and is a daughter of Hiram and Delila (Willford) Beatty. The young couple began their domestic life upon their present farm, Mr. Auverter having purchased forty acres of land in the fall of 1882, and in the spring of 1883 he erected a pleasant dwelling. Farming, however, is not his chief occupation, as he gives the greater part of his attention to carpentering. He has also worked to a limited extent in the oil fields, and has been a very industrious and energetic man. Upon his own land he has developed ten oil wells, four of which are now running.

In his political affiliations, Mr. Auverter is a Democrat, and for some years has served as supervisor. He has also filled the office of school director, and the cause of education has found in him a stanch friend. In fact he is the champion of all movements that he believes calculated to advance the general welfare, and is therefore a valued citizen of the community.

JUDGE HENRY H. DODGE, a leading attorney of Bowling Green, and for many years Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, was born in the town of Pompey, Onondaga Co., N. Y., February 4, 1830.

His grandfather, Ezra Dodge, a native of Windsor, Conn., and a soldier in the Revolutionary war, removed to New York State in 1800, taking up a "Soldier's Claim" in the township of Pompey, where he died in 1816, at the age of sixty-two.

David F. Dodge, our subject's father, was born at Windsor, Conn., September 8, 1787, and when thirteen years old accompanied his parents to their new home, where he spent the remainder of his life, dying at eighty-two years of age. He was a Whig until that party disbanded, when he became a Democrat. During the war he joined the Union party. He married Ada H. Roberts, a lady of Huguenot descent, and a native of Windsor, Conn., where her father had located after being driven from France by the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. She was born in 1797, and died in 1878. Our subject's parents were both Presbyterians in early life, but in 1838 they were converted to the Catholic faith, to which their surviving children adhered. They had three daughters and one son, our subject. Diane, deceased, was the wife of Francis Manahan, a hardware merchant of Utica, N. Y.; Mary, deceased, was the wife of Daniel G. Wheaton, a farmer of Pompey, N. Y.; and Cynthia became a sister of charity. She died in 1893 at Mount St. Vincent's Academy on the Hudson, in New York City, after more than forty years of devoted service. She was known as Sister Maria, and was one of the chief officers of the institution, performing the combined duties of secretary and treasurer for many years. For a few years before her death she held the arduous office of Prefect of studies in the school.

The Judge was educated in the old Pompey Academy, at Pompey Hill, until at the age of sixteen he was sent to St. John's College, New York City, where he was graduated in 1849. He spent the next two years working on his father's farm, and then began the study of law with Victory Birdseye, of Pompey. In the fall of 1852 he came to Perrysburg, Wood county, and finished his preparation for the bar in the office of Spink & Murray. After his admission in 1855, he went into partnership with James Murray, Mr. Spink having died, and continued in practice with him until Mr. Murray was elected Attorney-General of Ohio, in 1859. Our subject then formed a partnership with the late James R. Tyler, which lasted until 1869. Afterward he had as a partner, for a short time, Edson Goit, of Bowling Green, now deceased, and later was associated in the practice of law with Jasher Pillars. In 1877 he was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas. He was on the Bench for ten years, making an enviable record for judicial ability, and on his retirement in 1888 he resumed his law practice, taking as a partner John W. Canary.

In 1857 Judge Dodge married Sarah Wilkison, who was born December 20, 1837. Of their two children, the eldest, Mary, born in 1860, married Ernest G. Miller, and went to Creede, Col., where she died December 12, 1893, leaving two children, Hobart and Mary D., who now live with our subject. Frederick D., our subject's son, is the General Agent for Bloch Bros'. Tobacco Co., of Wheeling, W. Va. Judge Dodge is an influential member of the Democratic party, and has been a leader in many progressive movements in the community.

CAPTAIN DAVID WILKISON (deceased), of Perrysburg, was born at or near Buffalo, in February, 1800, and at an early age went on the Lake as a sailor. In 1815 he sailed up the Maumee river on the schooner "Blacksnake," commanded by

The "Oldest House" is the oldest frame house in four counties. It was built by Elihu Hall for the Smith family of nearby Skinners Eddy. He used the best quality lumber cleared from the land where the home stands. A huge chimney 8'x12' of fieldstone centers the dwelling that was put together almost entirely with wooden pegs. Until recently none of the exterior siding has ever been painted. It has five large fireplaces most of them useable for heating.

The home was occupied for more than a century by descendents of the town's founder, the Lacey family. It's rooms have served as an inn and tavern, a general store and ferry shop, the local post office, a school room and a place for church and funeral services.

Visitors are greeted by well informed guides who personally conduct them through the home.

Arrangements may also be made for clubs and small groups to tour the home by calling:

business, in which he has continued successfully up to the present time. He is also a stockholder in the natural gas company at Kittanning.

On April 23, 1865, Mr. Lenz married Caroline Heidersdorf, daughter of Philip Heidersdorf, a native of Germany. Two children have blessed this union: Henrietta and Lizzie, who are both at home.

Charles Lenz is a republican in political matters, and is always prompt, energetic and successful in any enterprise in which he engages. His mercantile establishment is on Jefferson street, at Kittanning. He carries a well-assorted and heavy stock of groceries, and has a good trade. By natural business ability, good judgment and courteous treatment of his patrons, he has been very successful in business. He is a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church, in which he is also an elder. He is a member of Kittanning Lodge, No. 1511, Knights of Honor. Mr. Lenz owns considerable real estate within the borough limits of Kittanning, where he is known as a man of energy and reliability.

REV. HENRY L. MAYERS. One who has grown in favor and confidence with his people by his earnestness of purpose and the integrity of his character is Rev. Henry L. Mayers, the present pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Kittanning. He was born at Millersburgh, Ohio, December 29, 1847, and is a son of Lewis and Sarah Wheaton Mayers. Lewis Mayers was born in Wurmz, Germany, October, 1811, and died at Millersburgh, Ohio, August 1, 1883, aged 72 years. He was a worthy representative of the industrious and progressive German race which has become so powerful in the world during the last two centuries. He settled in 1837 at Millersburgh, where he was engaged in the dry-goods business until 1873, when he organized "The Exchange bank," of which he was a large stock-holder. He was elected annually as president of that bank, from its organization until his death, in 1883. He was a remarkably successful business man, a public-spirited citizen in every way and an influential member of the Presbyterian church, to which he was always a liberal contributor. He married Sarah Wheaton, who is a daughter of Anson Melvin Wheaton, a teacher and noted surveyor of Ohio. They reared and educated a family of seven sons and four daughters, all of whom are living and in good circumstances. Six of these sons are successful business men.

Henry L. Mayers received his elementary education in private schools at Millersburgh and spent four years at Vermillion Institute, Haysville, Ohio, where he prepared for college. In 1868 he entered the sophomore class of Princeton college, from which he was graduated in the class of 1871. He took high rank as a speaker and literary man, being a junior orator prize-man, and carrying off a Whig Hall medal. He prepared for the ministry at Princeton Theological seminary, from which he was graduated in April, 1874. He was licensed by the presbytery of New Brunswick, New Jersey, April, 1874. His first charge was at Millville, N. J., where he remained for five years. His health then becoming impaired, he resigned his charge, and was not in regular pastoral work for two years. At the end of that time, having recovered his health in a large measure, he accepted a call, in March, 1881, from the First Presbyterian church of Kittanning, and has served as its pastor ever since.

On July 22, 1874, he married Margaret Phillips, a daughter of Lewis and Eliza Phillips, of Lawrenceville, New Jersey. Rev. and Mrs. Mayers were the parents of three children: Eliza Phillips, Lewis Deare and John Mickle. Mrs. Mayers was greatly beloved by their congregation, was an intelligent and amiable woman, but her stay on earth was limited to a few brief years, and she passed to her eternal home on March 10, 1887.

following in their father's farming footsteps.

Mr. Turley owns 432 of the 555 acres he farms. His mother owns the rest. He grows the county's traditional crops — corn, soybeans and wheat.

The Turley farm is one of 1,580 in the county, which have an average size of 220 acres. There are 347,000 acres of farmland in the county, 2 per cent of the agricultural acreage in Ohio. Only Darke County contains more farm acreage.

Wood County ranks sixth in the state in total cash receipts — $71,358,000 — from major agricultural commodities — first in the state in corn ($21,384,000), second in soybeans ($27,669,000) and third in wheat ($5,621,000).

The average total cash receipts per farm is $45,163, or $206 per acre. Soybeans account for 39 per cent of the county's major commodities, and corn, 30 per cent; other crops include wheat, 20 per cent, and livestock, 11 per cent.

The Turleys have only a handful of ewes which are used as part of Chris and Matt's 4-H project.

Mr. Turley explained that due to the fertility of the soil, it is wasteful to tie up acreage in pastureland for livestock.

The family farm, began by Mr. Turley's grandfather, continued to grow after his father left the oil fields. Mr. Turley said his father purchased 40 acres of land at that time and over the years, the Turleys have acquired parcel after parcel. "Forty acres next to the original 40, then 16, then 76, then 80 over here . . ." he said.

"I always wanted to farm. I'm darn crazy about the thing. You get it in your blood," he said.

But he said that nowadays its hard for a young farmer in the county to get started. They need someone to help them out.

"You either inherit it, marry it, or steal it," he said recounting an old joke about the way most farmers get their start.

Mr. Turley works the farm himself, with an occasional assist from his family, particularly his wife, who, by his account, is a pretty good tractor operator.
